

Global English is not enough for Global Business!

Whether you are planning an international multilingual conference or a small business meeting, you want to make sure that the time and effort invested by you or your company will bring maximum returns and benefits. When preparing your meeting or conference always bear in mind that your carefully organised event (accommodation, schedule, catering, sound, lighting, etc) will be of no use if communication is poor.

Communication is the key word. And when it comes to professional events and meetings, you want to be certain that professional interpretation will enable participants of different languages and cultures to understand each other.

The interpreters are your allies in organising a successful event. Do not sacrifice quality for the sake of false economies!

Depending on the type of your event, different interpretation types are more or less suitable. Here is a short description of various interpretation types in different conditions.

Simultaneous Interpretation

The interpreter sits in a booth, in front

Simultaneous interpretation is suitable for meetings as number of languages are spoken large number

Consecutive Interpretation

The interpreter sits at the conference table with the delegates

Consecutive interpretation is often more suitable for small meetings which are technical or conferences

Whispered Interpretation

Also called “chuchotage” Interpreter sits next to the listener (s) (2 p

Whispering is used for very short meetings (30 minutes) with a reduced au

Why use Professional Conference Interpreters?

Interpretation by professional simultaneous or consecutive interpreters will meet the following requirements

- faithfulness to the original
- accuracy of content
- synchronicity with the speaker

Our conference interpreters are trained in specialised university courses in order to deliver a regular sp

Working Conditions for Interpreters

The maximum time for 8 hours per day recommended is interpreters work in language pa

Given the constraints quality and health, the no

Interpretation booths should also meet International Organisation for Standardisation standards for both fixed mobile

We make sure to apply the Code of Ethics and Working Standards set by the International Association of Conference Interpreters \(AIIC\).

For more information and a customised solution for your specific interpretation needs, contact us